We ignore this type of income for Housing Benefit purposes.

This section covers the amount of money the Government says you and your family need to have for a basic standard of living. These figures are set by the Government each year.

This section will show the names of anyone aged over 18 who lives with you (excluding your partner), their income and the amount of any weekly deductions we have to make from your Housing Benefit because of this.

This section shows the weekly income we have used to calculate your Housing Benefit.

This is the maximum amount we can consider paying in Housing Benefit. This may not be the total rent you pay.

Your total weekly benefit award.
